STATOTHR 6. (Secret - JSW) Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, telephoned asking for our views on whether or not [ ] who defected in Moscow to the Russians, would be a good witness if he actually returns to the U. S.

25X1A After discussion with Mr. [ ] in SR, Sourwine was advised that from what we knew of the witness the Soviets had been relatively passive in the case and from CIA viewpoint this man would have little to offer us and probably very little to the Committee. Sourwine inquired if we could look into the matter and I stated that this was not appropriate under the circumstances. He seemed to have received all of the information he needed.

25X1 7. [ ] Talked further with Representative Arch A. Moore, Jr., (R., W.Va.) and Mrs. Terry, in his office, about the application of Mr. [ ] has written to Moore to the effect that he has made application to the Agency for a position but Personnel has no record of having received his forms. [ ] is checking further on this.

25X1 8. [ ] Picked up from House Foreign Affairs Committee a copy of the transcript of Secretary of State Herter's testimony before that Committee. This was forwarded to the Director. Also picked up a copy of a letter from [ ] a former employee of the Agency, to Congressman Wayne N. Aspinall (D., Colo.) suggesting a thorough investigation of intelligence activities. This has been forwarded to the Office of Security.

9. [ ] Visited with Congressman John J. Rhodes (R., Ariz.) who gave us the name of [ ] a constituent and friend of Rhodes' who is interested in employment possibilities with the Agency. [ ] is of Polish descent. Rhodes offered very little information about [ ] other than the fact that he had served with him in the Army, drank to excess on occasion but was an athletic type in whom we might have some interest. [ ] lives at [ ] [ ] Phoenix, Arizona. Rhodes was advised that we would look into the employment possibilities for Mr. [ ]
